EAGL 2024 Honors

Gymnast of the Week: Senior Kendall Whitman (Pottstown, Pa.) of George Washington was named EAGL Gymnast of the Week for the third time this season on March 6. At the Maryland Quad meet on March 1, Whitman placed first overall on floor with a 9.925 which marks her fifth win of the season on the event. The senior has scored 9.900 or higher on floor at every meet this season so far. She ranks first in EAGL on the event with a 9.915 NQS and 29th in the country. At the Maryland quad she posted scores of 9.825 on vault and beam as well.

Specialist of the Week: Junior Elise Tisler (Fairfax Station, Va.) of Towson picked up her third EAGL Specialist of the Week this season on March 6. At the Penn State quad meet on March 1, Tisler set a new career high of 9.975 on vault to place first overall and help the team log a season high and highest road score of 49.325. Her 9.975 ranks second in program history for Towson. Currently the junior ranks first in EAGL and 21st in the NCAA on vault with a 9.895 NQS. She has also led the Tigers to be ranked 15th in the nation on the event. Tisler logged scores of 9.850 and 9.825 on floor at the Penn State quad and WVU quad (March 3). This season so far, Elise has picked up four individual first place finishes on vault and two on floor.

Rookie of the Week: First-year Maya Peters (Toronto, Ontario) earned her first EAGL Rookie of the Week on March 6. At the Maryland quad, Peters matched her career high 9.925 on beam for a first place finish. She has logged scores of 9.850 or higher on beam at the last three meets, two of which were 9.925s. The freshman is tied for second in EAGL with a 9.830 NQS.
