EAGL 2026 Honors

Week One

Isabella Minervini
Gymnast of the Week

Robyn Dunne
Specialist of the Week

Brooklyn Thomas
Rookie of the Week

Ava Sutphen
Rookie Specialist of the Week

Gymnast of the Week - Senior Isabella Minervini (Fleming Island, Fla.) from Towson was voted EAGL Gymnast of the Week on Jan 7. Minervini won the all-around at No. 19 Clemson with a 39.200, her sixth career all-around first place finish. In addition, she placed in the top five in all four rotations, having Towson's high score on all four events.

Specialist of the Week - Sophomore Robyn Dunne (Louisville, Colo.) from Temple was voted EAGL Specialist of the Week on Jan 7. Dunne competed on bars and beam, finishing in the top five on both events. She anchored Temple's bars rotation and tied for first place with a score of 9.825, setting a career high on the apparatus. The sophomore also finished fourth overall on beam with a 9.700.

Rookie of the Week - Freshman Brooklyn Thomas (Frederick, Md.) from Temple was voted EAGL Rookie of the Week on Jan 7. Thomas competed in three events for Temple, the most of any freshmen and recorded hit routines on all three. The Maryland native scored at least a 9.675 in two of the events. The freshman's 9.725 on floor was enough to propel her into a tie for ninth place overall in that event.

Rookie Specialist of the Week - Freshman Ava Sutphen (Whitehouse, N.J.) from Temple was voted EAGL Rookie Specialist of the Week on Jan 7. Sutphen shined in her collegiate debut for the Owls on Sunday. In her only event of the afternoon, Sutphen posted a 9.800 on bars which put her in a tie for third place overall on that event. The freshman's 9.800 was the second-highest score put up by an Owl in the meet.
