New Hampshire Crowned 2026 EAGL Regular Season Champion

WEIRTON, W.Va. (Feb 21, 2026) — The East Atlantic Gymnastics League named the New Hampshire Wildcats the 2026 regular season conference champion on Saturday, March 21, 2026. This is the seventh year the EAGL has crowned a regular season champion, with each team participating in designated conference meets that count towards the regular season championship. The Wildcats clinched the title with a perfect 4-0 record. This is the second time in program history that New Hampshire was named the regular season champion, as it shared the 2020 title with NC State.

New Hampshire Conference Meets

2/1: Towson @ New Hampshire W, 195.700-194.925

2/8: Temple @ New Hampshire W, 195.600-194.500

2/15: New Hampshire @ George Washington W, 194.650-193.400

2/20: New Hampshire @ LIU W, 194.650-194.525

“Winning the EAGL regular season championship is a reflection of this team’s consistency, resilience, and belief in one another,” New Hampshire head coach Lindsey Ayotte said. “They have shown up every day ready to work, and this achievement is a result of their commitment to the process and to each other. I am so proud of this team and what they have done so far.”

New Hampshire will attempt to be only the second team to win both the EAGL Title and EAGL Regular Season Title in the same season when it competes at the EAGL Championship on Saturday, March 21 at LIU.
