

2024 New Hampshire Wildcats Preview

Lindsey Bruck Ayotte enters the 2024 season for her fifth year as head coach joined by associate head coach Steve Avgerinos, assistant coach Jazmyn Estrella and student assistant coach Olivia Queri.

New Hampshire wrapped up the 2023 season ranked 46th with a 20-10 overall record and National Qualifying Score (NQS) of 195.585. The Wildcats collected one second-team and four first-team All-EAGL honors as well as three NCAA Regional individual qualifiers.

Five freshman, five sophomores, four juniors, four seniors and two graduate students make up the 2024 squad.

Alyssa Beaulieu - Junior

Top returners to watch for include graduate student Kylie Gorgenyi and junior Alyssa Beaulieu. Gorgenyi was named first team all-EAGL on bars (9.890 NQS bars) and second team for vault (9.830 NQS) and floor (9.860 NQS). Beaulieu picked up first team all-around honors with a 38.950 NQS. Gorgenyi held three of the top scores on the team for vault (9.900), bars (9.950) and floor (9.900). Other notable returners include Kenadi Brown and Gracy Mowers, who both posted scores in the team's top 5 list. To conclude the season, Gorgenyi qualified for NCAA Regionals as an individual. She competed on bars, posting a 9.900 to tie for sixth place.

The Wildcats welcome rookies Zoe Arthur, Anne Chalman, McCall McMullen, Poulina Minaev and Gwen Ockerbloom to the 2024 squad.

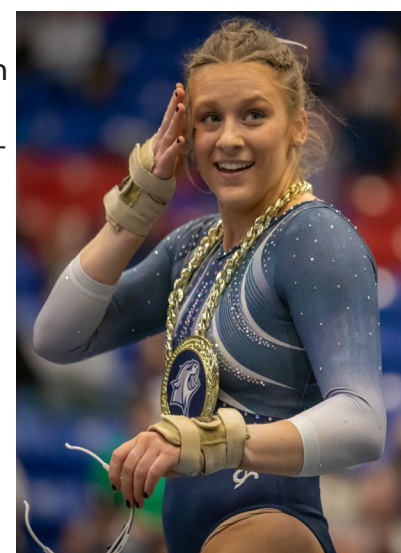

Arthur was a three-time Level 10 Regional qualifier and four-time Level 10 SoCal State qualifier. At the 2021 SoCal State Championships she placed fourth overall in all around and bars. Chalman is a two-time Level 10 Nationals qualifier, placing eighth on beam at the event in 2022. Minaev is a two-time Nationals qualifier as well, placing 10th on floor in 2021. In 2023 she placed second overall in all around at the Level 10 New York State meet.
