2018 EAST ATLANTIC GYMNASTICS LEAGUE AWARDS WEEK SIX – FEBRUARY 13TH

Cami Drouin-Allaire
Senior, GW
Shoreham, NY

Nicole O'Leary
Junior, UNH
Newtown, Conn.

Haley Brechwald
Freshman, Pittsburgh
Springfield, Va.

GYMNAST OF THE WEEK:

Senior Cami Drouin-Allaire (Shoreham, New York) from George Washington University earned her second EAGL Gymnast of the Week honor on February 13th after tallying the highest EAGL all-around during Week Six as the Colonials went 1-1 in a tri-meet, behind Denver and ahead of WVU. Drouin-Allaire finished on the podium with a second-place finish on vault (9.900), third-place finish on floor (9.875), and second-place finish with season-high matching 39.400 in the all-around. She also led the team in both events and all-around. She added a 9.800 on bars (tied fifth) and 9.825 on beam (fifth). The biology major and senior co-captain has broken the 39.000 threshold in the all-around five out of the six weeks of competition so far this season. She has scored above a 9.900 on vault three times in 2018.

SPECIALIST OF THE WEEK:

Junior Nicole O'Leary (Newtown, Conn.) of the University of New Hampshire was honored for the first time this season as EAGL Specialist of the Week on February 13th after earning a perfect 9.900 on vault to help lead the Wildcats to a conference win over Towson University. O'Leary's impressive vault score was a career-high and the highest possible score for her front handspring front pike vault. The 9.900 is tied for the second-highest score on vault in EAGL this season. She won the event and led the UNH vault lineup to their highest score this season (48.975). O'Leary added a score of 9.850 on floor which earned her second place.

ROOKIE OF THE WEEK:

Freshman Haley Brechwald (Springfield, Va.) collected her fourth overall and second-straight EAGL Rookie of the Week award on February 13th after winning the all-around for the fourth time this season as the Panthers picked up wins against NC State and Texas Women's University, but finished behind Auburn in a quad meet. Her 39.325 in the all-around was a career-high and was good enough to beat out six other gymnasts. The mark was the seventh-best in program history. Brechwald also finished in a four-way tie for second on bars after tying her season-high, 9.875. She was one of three 9.875 scores by Pitt on bars, en route to the second highest event score in program history. Additionally, Brechwald posted a season-high tying 9.875 on floor to finish fifth overall in the meet and tied for sixth on beam with a season-high 9.825.

WEEK SIX RECAP:

NC State (9-5/3-1)

1-2 at Texas Women's (1. Auburn, 196.500, 2. Pittsburgh 196.100, 3. NC State 195.925, 4. Texas Women's 195.200)

- NC State posted its highest road score of the season and its second-highest score overall in its quad meet with TWU, #15 Auburn and Pitt
- The Wolfpack's vault score of 49.175 was a season-high
- The Wolfpack saw four new career-highs set along with four career-highs being tied.

GW (11-3/2-0)

1-1 at Denver 1. Denver 196.725, 2. GW 195.900, 3. WVU 194.875

- The Colonials (11-3) put forth team scores of 49.175 on vault, 48.975 on uneven bars, 49.025 on balance beam, and 48.725 on floor exercise.
- Seniors Cami Drouin-Allaire and Jillian Winstanley both finished the night on the all-around podium. Drouin-Allaire finished second with a season-high matching 39.400 while Winstanley ended the night in a close third with a 39.350.
- GW had its best event of the night on vault, where the team posted a 49.175. Drouin-Allaire once again proved her prowess on vault with a team-high 9.900, while Winstanley earned a 9.875. Liz Pfeiler, Zois, and Mermelstein also posted solid scores for GW, with Pfeiler finishing with a 9.850, Zois scoring a season-high 9.825, and Mermelstein earning a 9.725.

UNH (4-4/3-2)

1-0 against Towson (1. UNH 195.775, 2. Towson 193.975)

- UNH recorded season-highs on vault (48.975) and floor (49.150).
