Week Three

Gymnast of the Week
Drew Grantham

Specialist of the Week
Khazia Hislop

Rookie of the Week
Alyssa Worthington

GOTW – Senior Drew Grantham (Durham, N.C.) from NC State was voted EAGL Gymnast of the Week on January 28th after participating in five events, and placing first on beam (9.825), floor (9.875), and all-around (39.250). Drew also came in a tie for first place on bars (9.825), which ties a career-high. NC State (195.650) won their home opener meet this weekend against EAGL opponent Towson (193.975).

SOTW – Senior Khazia Hislop (Concord, Mass.) of UNC earned EAGL Specialist of the Week honors on January 28th. Hislop did not score below a 9.800 on any of her three events this weekend, placing first on floor (9.900), tying for first on vault (9.850), and second on beam (9.800). UNC came back and defeated EAGL opponent Pittsburgh, with Hislop playing a large role in the comeback. This is the third week in a row she has earned the Specialist of the Week honor.

ROTW – Freshman Alyssa Worthington (West Warwick, R.I.) of UNH was named as EAGL Rookie of the Week on January 28th. Worthington won first place on beam (9.900), setting a new career-high and making her the lone Wildcat to win an event. Worthington has improved her beam mark four straight meets and is ranked No. 5 in EAGL with an average score of 9.781.

WEEKLY HIGHLIGHTS

Pittsburgh Current Record: 0-3, 0-2 EAGL

- Week Three: Pittsburgh (0-3, 192.450) @ UNC (4-1, 193.625)
- Seniors Michaela Burton (bars) and Alecia Petrikis (vault) earned individual wins for the Pitt gymnastics team Saturday evening at Carmichael Arena.
- For the third consecutive meet, Burton secured the uneven bars crown with a season high-tying score of 9.850.
- Petrikis shared the vault title with UNC's Khazia Hislop, marking her first individual win of the season with a 9.850.

NC State Current Record: 2-3, 1-1 EAGL

- Week Three: Towson (4-1, 193.975) @ NC State (2-3, 195.650)
- The team set a new season-high score of 195.650
- NC State recorded new season-high team scores in all four events with a 48.875 on vault, a 49.050 on bars, a 48.775 on beam, and a 48.950 on floor
- A member of the Wolfpack placed in or tied for first in all four events

UNH Current Record: 3-2, 1-0 EAGL

- Week Three: UNH (3-2, 195.125), Temple (2-4, 191.925) @ West Virginia (2-2, 196.025)
- Alyssa Worthington scored a career-high 9.900 on balance beam to place first for the first time in her career.
- UNH posted a season-best 49.150 on balance beam with five of the top six scores.
- The Wildcats had to rally when junior Lauren Diggan sustained an injury during warmups. Clare Hampford (9.750) and Kylie Kratchwell (9.750) each notched a personal best on uneven bars to help offset Diggan's absence.
